

Angela Kemper, MA, CFRE, is a successful fundraiser, trainer, and consultant with expertise in strategic communication that has generated results in nonprofit and corporate organizations for nearly 30 years. She has held executive positions for fundraising and membership programs that have led to successful multimillion-dollar capital campaigns, double-digit increases in annual campaigns, special events and membership growth, and expanded staff and board capacity. Angela's expertise includes strategic fundraising, prospect analysis and segmentation, and development program expansion. She facilitates board and staff retreats, community input sessions, and strategic planning processes. She is a Certified Master Trainer by the Association of Fundraising Professionals and conducts numerous workshops on fundraising and board engagement. Previously, Angela taught Strategic Communication for the MBA program at the Fuqua School of Business at Duke University for four years. She has a Masters degree in Communication Studies and a B.A. from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She has served on the Boards of Directors for the Western North Carolina Association of Fundraising Professionals, the Asheville Area Chamber of Commerce, the United Way of Asheville-Buncombe County, the North Carolina School of Science and Mathematics Foundation, and the National Association for Membership Development.
