Diversity

Diversity is the Goal, Inclusion is the Strategy

The Intersection – “The How”

Recruitment & Retention

- A diverse workforce drives economic growth.
- Recruiting from a diverse pool of candidates means a more qualified workforce.
- A diverse and inclusive workforce helps businesses avoid employee turnover costs. Businesses that fail to foster inclusive workplaces see higher turnover rates.
- Diversity fosters a more engaged, creative and innovative workforce.

3. Success means giving employees the opportunity to innovate, do meaningful work, and be on winning teams.
4. Appreciation means acknowledging and recognizing employees' outstanding work and unique contributions.
5. Well-being means paying attention to and constantly working to improve employees' physical, social, emotional, and financial health.

Exercise: What Would You Do?

Elisa has a coworker, Sally, who likes to talk about politics. Elisa does not care that much about politics but finds her coworkers' political views to be little extreme. Elisa likes her coworker and wants to get along with her. Elisa has thought of just pretending to agree with Sally or telling Sally she would rather talk about other subjects. Elisa suspects that Sally will be insulted if she goes with the second option. What should Elisa do?

Measuring Impact

- Focus on outcomes not just inputs
- Measurement becomes difficult if you think about it after the fact
- Plan to monitor along the way
- Does your business have a “thriving” or “dying” culture
